Amelia Lost: The Life and Disappearance of Amelia Earhart ... The format of Amelia Lost is a clever one - it alternates between the disappearance part (the Coast Guard that's hearing her radio signals but can't seem to get her to hear them, the people that, tuning in on AM radios, claim to have heard her over the next few days, and the desperate search for her goes on) and her life, starting at her birth and eventually meeting up with the final doomed flight portion. Amelia Lost: The Life and Disappearance of Amelia Earhart ... The format of Amelia Lost is highly appealing to middle grade readers. Instead of a traditional, chronological biography, Fleming alternates between the story of Earhart's life and the story of her final flight. The first chapter begins with the ship, Itasca, attempting to communicate with Earhart's plane near Howland Island. The
