different. In the realm of New Historicism, Greenblatt (who is also Harvard University's John Cogan University Professor of Humanities) delves beyond just the bare bones facts that are known of Shakespeare's life. Will in the World Summary | SuperSummary Will in the World interweaves a searching account of Elizabethan England with a vivid narrative of the playwright's life. We see Shakespeare learning his craft, starting a family, and forging a career for himself in the wildly competitive London theater world, while at the same time grappling with dangerous religious and political forces that took less-agile figures to the scaffold. Will in the World | Stephen Greenblatt The author's fears and concerns are often mirrored by real-world issues:
